

Minor in Science or Science Minor BA Student Application Form

The Minor in Science comprises 18 credits numbered 300 or higher in one specialization offered by the Faculty of Science. Successful completion of the Minor in Science results in having “Minor in Science” added to a student record.

The Science Minor comprises 18 credits or more numbered 300 or higher in one specialization, along with specific pre-requisites. Admission to some minors is competitive. Successful completion of the Science Minor results in having “Minor in (specific program)” added to a student record.

The following restrictions apply for both minors:

- B.A. Geography majors may not minor in B.Sc. geography, geology, geophysics, or oceanography
- B.A. Mathematics majors may not minor in B.Sc. mathematics
- B.A. Psychology majors may not minor in B.Sc. psychology
- Students may not pursue a Minor in Science in either mathematics or computer science. B.A. Minors in these disciplines are permitted and are identical to B.Sc. Minors in the same disciplines.
